

Colten J. Philpott MD
MPH, MBA, MHA, MPA

EMPLOYMENT

Texas Midwestern Emergency Physicians, Abilene Texas (Current)

-Emergency Medicine Attending Physician at Hendrick Health System and RPMH emergency departments.

Emergency Medicine Resident Physician, John Peter Smith Hospital, Ft. Worth Texas (2019-2022)

-Emergency Medicine Residency, Level 1 Trauma Center, Comprehensive Stroke, Sepsis, and Chest Pain Center with 130,000 annual visits with 25% admission rate, as well as community EM rotation at Baylor Scott & White in Irving, TX. Includes 3.5 months of ICU including MICU, SICU and PICU. Dedicated rotations in ultrasound, toxicology, orthopedics and ophthalmology. Pediatric EM throughout the 3-year program with monthly shifts at Children's ED in Dallas, a 70,000-visit pediatric tertiary center.

EDUCATION

Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Medicine, MD/MPH/MPA Degree program (2015-2019)

- Internship at University Medical Center Lubbock, Tx through the office of Mike Regain MD, Chief Medical Officer

The University of Texas at Arlington Graduate School of Business MBA/MHA (2015-2016)

- Internship, CareFlite EMS Administration Office

The University of Texas at Arlington College of Science B.A Biology (2010-2014)

- Summa Cum Laude

RESEARCH

QI project: What effect has enhanced PPE requirements and increased hygiene behaviors during the Covid-19 pandemic had on Hospital Acquired Infection rates?

Review of hospital acquired infection rates at a large county hospital before, during and after the 2020 Covid-19 pandemic to determine if increased PPE utilization, hygiene and overall employee behavior influenced nosocomial infection rates.

Intentional Ingestion and Death from Flecainide and Colchicine: Case Report

Poster presentation, JPS research symposium 06/2021

Poster presentation, North American Congress of Clinical Toxicology 10/21

IES newsletter publication, Ultrasound on the Frontline

Case report and treatment review of Achilles tendon rupture utilizing ultrasound 06/2021

John Peter Smith Hospital Domestic Abuse Strangulation Project.

Resident lead project aimed at risk stratification of patients who present with strangulation injuries from assault. Project goals include discovering high risk physical exam findings and presenting symptoms which would signify risk of vascular injury.

ORGANIZATIONS

Texas College of Emergency Physicians Resident/Candidate Board Member (2021-2022)

Texas College of Emergency Physicians Leadership and Advocacy Fellow (2021-2022)

The TCEP Leadership and Advocacy Fellowship was developed by the Texas College of Emergency Physicians to groom future emergency physician leaders. The fellowship combines elements of mentoring, organizational education, and advocacy skills training, in addition to guided experiences to selected Fellows.

Professional Medical Organizations

Emergency Medicine Residents Association (EMRA)
American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP)
Texas College of Emergency Physicians (TCEP)