

UT Health Houston

Houston, TX

Why UT Houston?

Our program challenges, trusts, and empowers residents from Day 1. We combine high expectations with strong mentorship, early autonomy, and a mission-driven culture of service to the underserved, helping residents build confidence, leadership, & sharp clinical judgment- preparing graduates for success in any emergency medicine career.

Contacts

Jessica Wilson, MD

Program Director
Jessica.I.Wilson@uth.tmc.edu

Novate Creeks

Residency Program Coordinator
novate.creeks@uth.tmc.edu

Important Facts

Rotations include:

- 2 primary training hospitals: Memorial Herman Hospital-TMC (University based, Level 1) & LBJ General Hospital (County-based)
- Also rotate in a variety of community settings, Texas Children's Hospital (TCH), and have elective time

Pediatrics experience:

- Training at both of Houston's Children's Hospitals (MHH-Children's & TCH), with a PEM curriculum, simulation, and fellowship

Ultrasound experience:

- A real strength in program/department with an amazing faculty, a new Global Health partnership with Ecuador, and an US fellowship

Electives:

- Hyperbaric Medicine, Aeromedical (LifeFlight), EMS, Rural EM, Wilderness Medicine, Toxicology, Regional Nerve Blocks, Research, Global Health, Administration, Education, Advocacy

Fellowship programs:

- Critical Care, EMS, Medical Education, Quality Assurance, Pediatric EM, Space Medicine, Ultrasound

21

Residents per class

Level I

Trauma designation

Academic Program

95,000

Patients per year

Connect

- Instagram: @uthoustonemres
- <https://med.uth.edu/emergencymedicine/education/residency/>

Updated 4.02.26