Texas Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians
A Non-Profit Corporation
BYLAWS

Revised March, 2020
Approved by ACEP Board of Directors July 1, 2020

Article I
Governance

Section 1 – Corporate Structure and Charter
This organization shall be a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Texas. Having received a Charter from the American College of Emergency Physicians, this organization is a Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians [hereinafter the “College”] and shall be called the Texas College of Emergency Physicians [hereinafter referred to as the “Chapter” or “TCEP”].

Section 2 – Fiscal Year
The fiscal year of the Chapter shall begin annually on the first day of July and end on the last day in June.

Section 3 - Records
The Chapter shall retain records of accounts and keep minutes of the proceedings of its members and Board. Records of the Chapter may be inspected by any member, agent or attorney for any proper purpose within a reasonable time. Demands of inspection shall be in writing and addressed to the attention of the President or Secretary.

Article II
Mission, Purpose, and Objectives

The mission, purpose, and objectives of the Texas College of Emergency Physicians shall be those set forth in the Bylaws of the American College of Emergency Physicians and in accordance with the Chapter’s Articles of Incorporation.
Article III

Membership

Section 1 - Qualifications
The qualifications for membership in the Chapter shall be consistent with those for membership in the College.

Section 2
Membership applications, classification changes, resignations, suspensions, and expulsions shall be acted upon by the College.

Section 3 - Membership Classifications and Privileges
Membership classifications and privileges in the Chapter shall be consistent with those designated by the College in its Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided for in these Bylaws, Candidate members may not hold a Chapter office, may not vote in elections, or vote on any matter submitted to the membership, but may vote on committees to which they have been appointed.

Article IV

Dues and Assessments

Section 1 - Dues
Dues for the Chapter shall be established and/or changed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 2 - Assessments
Assessments may be levied by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 3 - Good Standing Requirement
Members not in good standing due to failure to pay dues, assessments, or other reason shall forfeit all rights and privileges at the Chapter level.

Article V

Meetings of the Members

Section 1 - Annual Meeting
There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Chapter membership. Notice of such meeting shall be communicated in writing not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the appointed time. Other regular meetings of the Chapter may be held with similar notice requirements.

Section 2 - Special Meetings
Special meetings of the members may be called by the President, the Board of Directors or by a written petition signed by not less than ten percent (10%) of regular members. Notice of such meetings shall be communicated in writing not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days before the appointed time.
Section 3 - Referenda
The Board of Directors or ten percent (10%) of the Chapter’s regular members may direct a referendum to the members of the Chapter concerning any action of the Chapter. Such referendum shall be conducted within sixty (60) days of the request and communicated in writing in accordance with Art. V, Sec. 6 – Notice.

Section 4 - Quorum
A minimum of three (3) Chapter members represented at any duly called meeting of the Chapter shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5 - Parliamentary Authority
When not in conflict with these Bylaws, the parliamentary procedures outlined in the most recent edition of the American Institute of Parliamentarians “Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure” shall govern Chapter Meetings.

Section 6 - Notice
Notice of membership meetings shall include the time, place, and purpose(s) of the meeting and shall be delivered to the last recorded address of each member via postal mail unless a member has requested electronic delivery and provided an electronic address.

Article VI
Board of Directors

Section 1 - Powers
The Board of Directors (hereinafter the “Board”) shall have supervision, control, and direction of the affairs of the Chapter; shall determine its policies or changes therein within the limits of these Bylaws; shall actively pursue its purposes; and shall have discretion in the disbursement of its funds. The Board may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as shall be deemed advisable and may, in the execution of the powers granted, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary.

Section 2 - Composition
The Board shall be composed of 13 elected Directors, plus the Immediate Past President; and shall include a young physician and a Candidate member resident/fellow who shall have the right to vote at the Board level. There shall also be a non-voting Candidate member medical student representative. Other Officers shall remain non-voting ex officio members of the Board if their term as an elected Director has expired.

Section 3 - Terms
The young physician, resident/fellow, and medical student representative shall serve a term of one year and may serve no more than two (2) consecutive terms in these positions, assuming eligibility at time of election. Other elected directors shall serve a term of three (3) years and may serve no more than three (3) consecutive terms.

All Board terms shall begin at the close of the Annual Meeting at which their election occurs and conclude at the close of the Annual Meeting coincident with their respective term of office.
Section 4A - Nomination and Election

Nominations shall be conducted as noted in Article IX, Sec 4 – Nominating Committee.

Nominees shall be members of the Chapter in good standing. In addition, at the time of the election, young physician candidates must be regular members less than 40 years of age or in active emergency medicine practice less than 10 years; resident\fellow candidates must be in good standing within a Texas-based Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) or American Osteopathic Association (AOA) accredited Emergency Medicine Residency Program or fellowship training program immediately following an emergency medicine residency; and medical student candidates in good standing in a Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME) or Council on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA) accredited Medical School in Texas.

Section 4B - Balloting Procedures

Voting in elections shall be in person. Directors and the medical student representative shall be elected by a majority of eligible Chapter members voting at the Annual Membership Meeting. Write in votes are not allowed.

Regular Chapter members may vote for all Board positions. Candidate members who are a resident\fellow may only vote for the resident\fellow Director and the medical student representative and candidate members who are medical students may only vote for the medical student representative.

On an individual ballot, members must cast the same number of votes as the number of positions to be filled. In the event more candidates than the number of positions to be filled receive a majority, the candidates with the greatest majority will be elected. In the event all positions but one are filled and there are three or more remaining candidates for the sole remaining position and none receive a majority, the candidate with the lowest vote total shall be dropped from the next ballot.

Section 5 - Meetings

The Board shall have no less than four (4) regular meetings annually, to include an Annual Board Meeting to be held within 7 (seven) days following the conclusion of the Annual Chapter Membership Meeting. Regular Board meetings are open to Chapter members unless otherwise specified.

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or one-third (1/3) of Directors. Special meetings may or may not be open to Chapter members at the discretion of the convening agent, who will also designate the place, date, and time.

Notice of regular and special meetings of the Board shall be communicated in writing to each member of the Board at least ten (10) days in advance of each meeting in accordance with Art. V, Sec. 6 – Notice. Such meetings may be conducted by telephone conference call or other electronic medium. A majority of Directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

Any Board member may request an emergency Board meeting by notifying the President and Chapter Executive Director in writing of the need to consider a time sensitive matter.
Such a meeting will be duly called upon an affirmative response by a majority of Directors responding to the request by electronic mail, telephone or other appropriate means within two (2) business days. If approved, the emergency meeting will be scheduled by the President to convene within an additional two (2) business days.

Section 6 - Removal

Any Director or Board representative may be removed from office by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Chapter members voting at any Chapter meeting. Removal must be initiated by a majority vote of Directors or a petition of regular Chapter members signed by no less than one-third (1/3) of the number of regular Chapter members voting at the meeting at which the Director was elected. Any vacancy created by removal may be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by a majority vote of the Chapter members voting at the meeting at which the removal occurs. Nominations for any vacancy created by a removal shall be accepted from the floor.

Section 7 - Resignation

Any Director or Board representative may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or to the Board. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time is specified, at the time of acceptance by the President or the Board.

Section 8 - Vacancies

Vacancies which occur on the Board or Board representative for any reason may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining Directors with an eligible member for the respective position and for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Section 9 - Compensation to Directors

Members of the Board shall not receive compensation for regular Board service. However, the Board may at its discretion reimburse expenses directly related to attendance at Board meetings. Members of the Board who serve the Chapter in a capacity outside of regular Board duties may receive some form(s) of compensation.

Section 10 – Failure to Fulfill Board Duties

Unexcused absence from two (2) or more scheduled Board meetings per year by any member of the Board shall be cause for the Board to review their performance and may, by majority vote, suspend their rights as a Board member.

Section 11 - Chapter Executive Director

An Executive Director may be appointed and/or employed at the discretion of the Board and be directly responsible to the Board. The duties, responsibilities, and terms of employment shall be determined by the Board. The Executive Director shall be entitled to participate in Chapter & Board discussions, but not entitled to vote.
Article VII
Officers

Section 1 - Composition
The officers of the Chapter shall be the President, President-Elect, Treasurer, Secretary, and Immediate Past-President.

Section 2 Term of Office and Board Membership
Officer terms shall be one year and commence at the conclusion of the Board meeting at which election occurs and end at the conclusion of the Board meeting at which a successor is elected or succession occurs. Officers shall not be eligible to serve concurrently in more than one office and the number of terms served in any one office is limited only by eligibility for Board service.

Section 3 Officer Nomination, Election and Balloting
Nominations shall be conducted as noted in Art. IX, Sec. 4 - Nominating Committee. Nominees for Chapter Officer shall be a current elected Director at the time of their election. The President-Elect, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be elected by majority vote of Directors voting at the Annual Board Meeting. In the event there are three (3) or more candidates for one position and no candidate receives a majority of votes cast, the candidate with the lowest vote total shall be dropped from the next ballot.

Section 4 - Officer Duties
a. President shall:
   1) be the presiding officer at all meetings. In the absence of the President, the President-Elect, Immediate Past-President, Treasurer, or Secretary in said order shall be the presiding officer.
   2) be ex-officio member of all committees.
   3) be responsible for ensuring that all Chapter contracts with third parties contain a provision disclosing the fact that the Chapter is an entity separate and distinct from the College and for ensuring that the Chapter adheres to the policy governing the use of the mark of the American College of Emergency Physicians.
   4) be responsible to oversee an annual evaluation of the Executive Director.

b. President-Elect shall:
   1) when necessary, perform Presidential duties with all the powers and be subject to all the restrictions of the President.
   2) chair the Nominating Committee.
   3) perform such other duties as assigned by the President or Board.
   4) succeed to the Office of President at the expiration of the incumbent President's term.

c. Treasurer shall:
   1) have general custody of all funds and securities of the Chapter except such as may be required by law to be deposited with any governmental agency.
2) deposit or cause to be deposited all monies and other valuable property in the name and to the credit of the Chapter into financial institutions as approved by the Board.
3) disburse the funds of the Chapter as may be ordered by the Board;
4) keep, or cause to be kept, regular books of account under their direction and supervision, and render to the Board, whenever requested, an account of all the financial transactions and report on the financial condition of the Chapter.
5) have charge of the preparation and filing of such reports, financial statements, and returns as may be required by law.
6) provide to the Board, no later than four (4) months after the close of the fiscal year, a balance sheet together with a statement of the income and profits and loss of such fiscal year. Such financial statement shall be verified by a certified public accountant.
7) Perform the duties of the Treasurer, except with approval of the Board, assign such duties to the Executive Director.

d. Secretary shall:
1) keep, or cause to be kept, adequate records of transactions and minutes of meetings of the Board and Chapter.
2) give or cause to be given required notices of all meetings of the members and Board.
3) from time to time review the Chapter Bylaws to ensure their content effectively represents the interests and expectations of the membership and Chapter, and are consistent with the Bylaws of the College.

e. Immediate Past-President shall:
1) remain a Director until duly replaced by succession of officers or until such time as their regular term as a Director shall expire, whichever is longer.
2) perform duties as assigned by the President or Board.
3) If, for any reason, the office of Immediate Past-President becomes vacant, the Board may appoint a previous Chapter President to this office.

Section 5 – Removal
An Officer may be removed from office by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of Directors. Removal of an Officer shall not automatically result in removal as a Director if their term has not yet expired. However, at its discretion, the Board, by majority vote, may suspend such Director’s privileges and initiate removal as a Director in accordance with Art. V, Sec. 6.

Section 6 – Resignation
A Chapter Officer may resign by giving written notice to the President or the Board. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time is specified, at the time of acceptance by the President or the Board. Resignation by an Officer shall not automatically result in resignation as a Director if that term has not yet expired.
Section 7 – Vacancies

Vacancies which occur in a Chapter Officer position for any reason (except as below) may be filled by a majority vote of Directors with an eligible member for the respective position and for the remainder of the unexpired term.

In the event the President is unable to fulfill their duties, the President-Elect shall succeed to the office of President for the remainder of the unexpired term and for the succeeding term.

In the event both the President and President-Elect are unable to fulfill their duties, the Board shall elect a current Director to serve as President for the unexpired term, and then elect both a President and President-Elect at the next Annual Board Meeting.

Article VIII

Councillors

Section 1 - Allocation

The Chapter shall be represented by Councillors at meetings of the Council of the American College of Emergency Physicians and allocation shall be determined as specified in the College Bylaws. The Board may appoint a number of Alternate Councillors not to exceed twice the number of Councillors.

Section 2 – Term & Election

The Chapter President serves as an ex-officio Councillor for a one (1) year term and acts as the delegation’s leader.

The remaining Councillors shall be elected by Chapter members at the Annual Meeting for terms of two (2) years, which shall be staggered so approximately one-half of Councillors are elected annually. Alternate Councillors shall serve a term of one (1) year and be appointed annually by the Board. Councillors and Alternate Councillors may serve unlimited consecutive terms.

Section 3 –Councillor Nomination and Balloting

Nominations for Councillor shall be conducted as noted in Art. IX, Sec. 4 – Nominating Committee.

To be considered by the Nominating Committee, candidates for Councillor must be regular Chapter members in good standing, having served at least two (2) years as a Councillor or Alternate Councillor.

Balloting for Councillors will follow the procedure outlined in Art. VI, Sec. 4B - Balloting Procedures.

Section 4 – Removal

A Councillor may be removed and vacancy filled by the procedure outline in Art. VI, Sec. 6 for Director removal. An Alternate Councillor may be removed by a majority vote of the Board.
Section 5 – Resignation

Councillors or Alternate Councillors may resign by giving written notice to the President or the Board. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time is specified, at the time of acceptance by the President or the Board.

Section 6 – Vacancies

Vacancies occurring in Councillor or Alternate Councillor positions may be filled by a majority vote of the Board with an eligible member for the respective position and for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Section 7 – Responsibilities and Special Rights of Councillors/Alternate Councillors

Councillors shall represent the Chapter at all Council meetings. If unable to attend, the Councillor must notify the President and/or Executive Director. Alternate Councillors are also expected to attend Council Meetings and be prepared to serve as a Councillor should the need arise.

Article IX

Committees

Section 1 – Appointment

With the exception of the Executive Committee, the President may create and appoint members to committees as deemed necessary to facilitate the business of the Chapter. Individual committee members shall actively participate in the affairs of committees to which they are appointed until they are replaced, resign, or removed at will by the President.

The President will appoint a Committee Chair who shall be responsible for organizing the respective committee and reporting committee activities to the Board.

The President shall be an ex-officio member of all Chapter committees.

Section 2 – Governance and Authority

Chapter committees shall be governed by Chapter policies, procedures, governing documents and other rules established by the Board. They may adopt additional rules for their individual committee governance as long as they are consistent with the above.

Actions of committees shall at all times be advisory to, and subject to the authority of the Board and Executive Committee as provided in these Bylaws.

A majority of committee members in attendance at committee meetings shall constitute a quorum.

Section 3 – Executive Committee

The Chapter Officers shall constitute the Executive Committee which shall have the authority, when a quorum (defined as a majority of members) is present, to act on behalf of the Board between regular meetings. Such actions must be ratified by the Board at the next regular meeting; failure of such ratification nullifies the action(s) taken by the Executive Committee.
Section 4 – Nominating Committee

At least 90 days prior the Annual Membership Meeting, the President shall appoint the President-Elect as chair and not less than two (2) additional current Directors (none of whom intend to seek election) to the Nominating Committee. This committee shall present to the Board for approval, a list of one or more nominations for each open position for Directors and Councillors at least sixty (60) days prior to the Annual Membership Meeting. The approved report of the Nominating Committee shall then be published to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior the Annual Membership Meeting.

The nominating committee will also submit nominations for President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer to the Board at the Annual Board Meeting.

Nominations from the floor are allowed in all elections and floor candidates must meet the minimum qualifications for the respective desired position.

Section 5 - Notice of Chapter Committee Meetings

The committee chair shall provide at least seven (7) days’ notice to committee members of scheduled meetings in accordance with methods used by the Chapter for other types of notice. Attendance at any committee meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice.

Article X

Voting Methods and Telecommunications

Voting in election of the Board and Councillors and other matters at the Annual Membership Meeting shall be “in person” voting only. Proxy voting is not allowed.

Conduct in all matters at Board and committee meetings, including voting, is to be in-person unless such meetings takes place via conference call or other electronic medium which allows participants to communicate concurrently with each other and each person entitled to participate consents to the meeting being held by such means.

Article XI

Indemnification

The Chapter will, by resolution of the Board, provide for indemnification by the Chapter of any and all of its Directors or Officers or former Directors or Officers against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which they or any of them are made parties, or a party, by reason of having been Directors or Officers of the Chapter, except in relation to matters as to which such Director or Officer or former Director or Officer shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty and to such matters as shall be settled by agreement predicated on the existence of such liability for negligence or misconduct.
Article XII

Approval of Bylaws and Amendments

Section 1
These Bylaws and Amendments thereto shall not become effective until approval by the Board of Directors of the College or its designee.

Section 2
These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members voting at a meeting of the Chapter, provided that the proposed amendments have been communicated in writing to the membership of the chapter at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting.

Section 3
Amendments to these bylaws shall be submitted to the College in a format and manner prescribed by the College no later than thirty (30) days following the adoption of such amendments. No amendment shall have any force or effect until it has been submitted to and reviewed by the Board of Directors of the College or its designee, provided however, that such amendment shall be considered to be approved if the Board of Directors of the College or its designee fails to give written notice of its objection within ninety (90) days following receipt.

Section 4
These Bylaws must at all times be consistent with the Bylaws of the College. Should the Bylaws of the College be changed in such a manner as to render these Bylaws inconsistent therewith, then these Bylaws shall be amended within two (2) years of written notification of amendment of the College Bylaws to eliminate said inconsistency.

Section 5 – Adoption Certification
This is to certify that I am the duly elected, qualified and acting Secretary of the Texas College of Emergency Physicians and that the foregoing Bylaws were adopted as follows:

Executed at {name of city}, Texas on {date} by the Chapter Membership at its Annual Meeting.
